

Dear Visitors,

for the third time we welcome you to experience Italian art and culture in a special Berlin location, with over 60 artists from Berlin and Italy. The festival theme 2017 is CONTAMINAZIONE.

At the charismatic KühlhausBerlin we will present to you a selected mix of music, theater, performances, movies, installations, artwork and a variety of exciting workshops. A street food market with Italian food and wine won't be missing.

The COFFI Festival is the first interdisciplinary German/ Italian art festival in Berlin. It is a platform for Italian artists living in Berlin and it also offers artists from Italy the opportunity to present their works and perspectives to a German and international audience, setting up a creative exchange and dialogue.

The festival contributes to the mediation of present Italian culture and serves to strengthen and to open the Italian network in Berlin to all interested parties. Therefore COFFI wants to bring together artists with Italian backgrounds and people of other cultures and disciplines, creating a platform in which art can express itself without limits.

We invite you to explore this location, enjoy the art and experience the synergy.
